GOVT OF MYSORE

Sir,

The election of the vice president of this municipality took place on 3-8-41 and the result was declared by the chairman forthwith though it is more than a month, the approval of the Government has not so far been accorded. The delay has caused much inconvenience to the administration of this municipality in particular and also to the ratepayers in general. So, it is requested that necessary and immediate action be taken in the matter.

The Amildar president left this place on 17-8-41 and the Taluk Shirastedar, the acting Amildar is the incharge president of the municipality. He has three fold duties to perform and is unable to carry out the municipal work during [illegible] meeting of [illegible] 31 8 41, it was resolved that the Council should request one [illegible] spots for granting licences for [illegible] incharge president pleased [illegible] to this work on the ground that we have to at the instance of the Deputy Commissioner rate payers have been put to much inconvenience due to this If there were to be a Vice President would have been a responsible person to abter all such duties, such inconvenience would have been avoided so So, it is requested that you be kind enough to do the needful in the and instruct the incharge president to such of the powers to the elected vice pending the formal approval by the Govt

Thanking you

Yours truly

M G Gundu Rao

Secretary
